“There is no need to use ‘they’ or ‘the enemy’ except as shorthand. We know who ‘they,’ the enemy, is. The Committee of 300 with its Eastern Liberal Establishment ‘aristocracy,’ its banks, insurance companies, giant corporations, foundations, communications networks, presided over by a hierarchy of conspirators – this is the enemy.” – John Coleman, “Conspirators Hierarchy”

The Committee of 300, also known as The Olympians, is described as being a European power elite group founded by the British aristocracy in 1727 and modeled after the British East India Company’s Council of 300. The British East India Company was chartered back in the 1600’s by the British royal family. It was the largest company in the world at the time due to the immense wealth it acquire during the Opium trade with China. Allegations abound that the Committee of 300 is actively involved as a top-tier in today’s world drug trade. The committee is believed responsible for establishing the “War on drugs” and said to be profiting from the manufacturing, distribution, and sales of drugs as well as the criminal enforcement of the drug trade.

The international council is alleged to consist of the elite from European royal families. The shadow empire was spawned after the death of Queen Victoria in order to maintain lasting power and control in a quickly and ever changing world. The aristocratic conglomeration made the tactical decision to work with influential and powerful businessmen and world leaders around the world, who were outside of the aristocracy. The Committee of 300 is said to organize and control the state of affairs in politics, commerce, banking, media, and the military in order to centralized global control efforts.

The Committee of 300 is believed to be a hierarchy to the Round Table, which is the organizational hub of the Bilderberg Group, the Royal Institute of International Affairs, the Club of Rome, the Trilateral Commission and the Council on Foreign Relations.

John Coleman, a former British MI6 Intelligence Officer and author of the book “The Conspirators Hierarchy, the Committee of 300” states he has first-hand information and encounters with this pervasive and powerful group. Coleman states the group may also be known as the “Hidden Hand”, and is headed by the Rothschild family of international financiers. Coleman also claims, “Through their illicit banking cartel, they own stock of the Federal Reserve.

It is believed the numerical value of 300 came from an article written by Walter Rathenau, of General Electric.

In his 1909 article entitled, Geschäftlicher Nachwuchs, Rathenau states, “Three hundred men, all of whom know one another, direct the economic destiny of Europe and choose their successors from among themselves.”
